

Daily Notices circulated by the Government Information Office

Thursday, 30 April 2020

Contents:

- Fisheries: UN World Tuna Day 2020 events, 30Apr-7May2020 (see attached).
 - UNESCO: Call for nominations for the 2020 edition of the UNESCO Prize for Girls' and Women's Education. Closes 26May2020 (nomination form and explanatory notes attached).
 - REPOST DFAT: International Art Contest. Now closing 15May2020 (see attached).
-

Please scroll down for the notices listed above including contact details for each.

On Behalf of the Nauru Fisheries and Marine Resources Authority

UN World Tuna Day 2020 events, 30Apr-7May2020 (see attached).

Fisheries is celebrating World Tuna Day, 30Apr-7May under the theme "Tuna for us all".

Events are being held as follows:

1. Fishing competition, 1 May, 4-11am (see attached for registration and rules).
2. Schools-based program:
Activities:
 1. Poetry on Tuna: (Primary and Secondary students). 1st prize: $100.00
 2. Poster drawing (A3) on Tuna: (Able-Disable and infant schools). 1st prize: $100.00
 3. Beach clean-up and planting of indigenous plants along coastal area (all schools): 1st prize: $200.00Schools to register with: Odea Harris: 556 0097; Ebelina Tsiode: 558 1466; Sedella Gadeowa: 556 5718.

On Behalf of the Nauru National Commission for UNESCO

Call for nominations for the 2020 edition of the UNESCO Prize for Girls' and Women's Education. Closes 26May2020. Nomination forms attached.

Nomination forms are now attached for the UNESCO Prize for Girls' and Women's Education.

Up to three (3) individuals, institutions or organisations can be nominated for those who have made outstanding contributions to the advancement of girls' and women's education.

Funded by the People's Republic of China, the Prize honours outstanding and innovative practices advancing girls' and women's education and consists of two monetary awards of USD 50,000 to help further the work of laureates in this field.

Return your completed nomination forms to Nauru National Commission for UNESCO Secretary General Lyn Teleni E: lteleni@gmail.com M: 554 5889.

Enquiries regarding the nomination process can be directed on island to Lyn Teleni, or addressed to Ms. Rebekah Cameron, Section of Education for Inclusion and Gender Equality, at +33 1 45 68 10 08 or GWEPrize@unesco.org

REPOST

On Behalf of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (Geneva-based UN mission)

International Art Contest. Now closing 15May2020 (see attached).

Nauru's UN Geneva Mission is inviting one local artist to showcase their talents in the upcoming international art contest being held in Geneva.

The theme of the contest is "The Future We Want" and is held in commemoration of the 75th birthday of the UN.

Artists should submit artworks electronically to <https://airtable.com/shrERSrKsoZMMaPoT> and use the following contacts as your focal point:

Focal points:

Kellen Adeang: kellenadeang@gmail.com

Or

Gemariah Giouba: gem.giouba13@gmail.com

Tel: +674 557 9239

For full details, key dates and guidelines, see attached.

Daily notices are circulated by the Nauru Government Information Office on behalf of departments and SOEs
GIO, Yaren District, Government Office, Republic of Nauru / Mobile +674 557 3009
Em: gio.nauru@gmail.com / naurugovinfo@gmail.com / www.naurugov.nr

Follow us on The Government of the Republic of Nauru