Description of Trademark:

The Trademark consists of a stylised frigate bird in upward flight symbolising Naoero's ambition, leadership, resilience, and national pride. The three points of the bird's beak and wings represent the gold, silver, and bronze medal podium positions. The bird incorporates a motif inspired by the Naoero Itiber (the woven mat), representing unity and cooperation among the 10 participating Micronesian countries, which are also symbolised by 10 equal-sized diamonds. The motif is displayed as negative space on the wings, reflecting the traditional Naoero practice of marking frigate birds while celebrating Naoero's cultural identity and its role as the first-time host of the Games. The logo's theme is "RISING ABOVE THE TIDES," symbolising resilience, unity, and overcoming challenges together.
